

	Utterson	Dr Henry Jekyll	Mr Edward Hyde	Lanyon	Women: girl, maid, landlady	Poole, Enfield, Guest, Carew, Doctor
Character	He's a lover of the "sane and customary sides of life" (2) lean, long, dusty, dreary, and yet somehow lovable". (Asyndetic list, alliteration, boring and reliable narrator)	'a tall, fine build of a man' (8) "Je", if translated from French, means "I", and "Kyll", is a homophone for "kill". (Portmanteau word) 'every guarantee of an honourable and distinguished future' (10)	'more of a dwarf' (8) 'natural and human' 'I felt younger, lighter, happier in body' (10) (asyndetic list, rule of three) 'less robust and less developed than the good which I had just deposed' (10)	'a hearty, healthy, dapper red-faced gentleman' (2)		'an aged and beautiful gentlemen with white hair' (4) (exaggerated)
The Duality of Human Nature	'Wondering, almost with envy, at the high pressure of spirits involved in their misdeeds' (1)	'the perennial war among my members...from both sides of my intelligence' (Semantic field of war and conflict) 'doomed to such a dreadful shipwreck: that man is not truly one, but truly two' 'others will outstrip me on the same lines...man will be ultimately known for a mere polity of multifarious, incongruous, and independent denizens' (10) (Freudian theory)		'if we knew all, we should be more glad to get away' (6), and yet he is tempted by Hyde to see the transformation. 'disgustful curiosity' (oxymoronic)	'She had an evil face, smoothed by hypocrisy; but her manners were excellent.' (4)	'sick and white with the desire to kill him' (1) (irony)
Good vs Evil	'O my poor old Harry Jekyll, if ever I read Satan's signature upon a face it is on that of your new friend' (3)	'he was now no less distinguished for religion' (6) 'he would even make haste, where it was possible, to undo the evil done by Hyde' (10)	'Edward Hyde, alone in the ranks of mankind, was pure evil' (10) 'damned Juggernaut' (1) (Hinduism reference)		'keeping the women off him as best we could for they were as wild as harpies' (1) (Greek mythology)	'I never saw a man I so disliked, and yet I scarce know why.' (1) (evil can be sensed but not described)
Innocence and Violence		'It was Hyde, after all, and Hyde alone, that was guilty' (10)	'trampled calmly' (1) (oxymoron) 'I mauled the unresisting body, tasting delight from every blow' (10) (senses) 'bones were audible shattered and the body jumped upon the roadway' (4) (Hyperbole, comical language)		'of maybe eight or ten' (1)
Friendship and Loyalty	"I shall consider it my duty to break in that door" (8). 'I incline to Cain's heresy' (Biblical imagery)	'He came out of his seclusion, renewed relations with his friends' (6) 'when the trio were inseparable friends' 'To cast it in with Hyde, was...to become...friendless' (10)	'if he has any friends or any credit, we undertook that he should lose them' (1)	'I felt bound to do as he requested' (9)		'Do you think I do not know my master after twenty years?' (RQ) 'it is the belief of my heart that there was murder done' (8)
Reputation, Secrecy and Repression	'you and I are about to place ourselves in a position of some peril?' (8) 'If your master has fled or is dead, we may at least save his credit' (8)	'regarded and hid them with an almost morbid sense of shame' (10) 'I came to myself as if out of a great sickness' (pronoun 'myself')	'my devil had long been caged, he came out roaring' (10)		'it drove a thriving trade...laying out the surplus of their gains... with an air of invitation, like rows of smiling saleswomen.' (1) (prostitution)	'I am ashamed of my long tongue' (1)
Curiosity and Knowledge	'There's one point I want to ask: I want to ask the name of that man who walked over the child' (1)	'the temptation of a discovery so singular and profound, at last overcame the suggestions of alarm' (10)		'I have gone too far in the way of inexplicable services to pause before I see the end' (9) 'if we knew all, we should be more glad to get away' (6)		'No sir, I make it a rule of mine: the more it looks like Queer Street, the less I ask' (1) (homosexuality)
Reason and the effect of the Supernatural	'Seized with one of those maladies that both torture and deform the sufferer' (8) (justification, homosexuality)	'you must suffer me to go my own dark way' (6) 'If I am the chief of sinners, I am the chief of sufferers also' (repetition)	'you who have denied the virtue of transcendental medicine, you who have derided your superiors – behold!' (9)	'death-warrant written legibly upon his face' (6) (extreme physical reaction) 'visible balder and older' 'Tokens of swift physical decay' 'My life is shaken to its roots' (9)	'At the horror of these sights and sounds, the maid fainted' (4) (stereotyped)	'sick and white with the desire to kill him' (1) 'hair stood upon my head like quills' (8) (extreme physical reaction)
Science vs Religion	'a volume of some dry divinity on his reading-desk' (2) 'clock of the neighbouring church rang out' (physically close to God)	'like the Babylonian finger on the wall, to be spelling out the letters of my judgement' (10) (Biblical imagery) 'that child of Hell had nothing human' (10)	'your sight shall be blasted by a prodigy to stagger the unbelief of Satan' (9)	'Unscientific balderdash' (2)
